DRUGS GANG JAILED

FIVE men from Barking and Dagenham were jailed at Basildon Crown Court on Tuesday for conspiracy to supply drugs.

The five were party of an 11-man gang jailed for a total of 118 years for offences in 2012 and 2013.

The men were:

● Leart Berberi, 31, of Linsdell Road, Barking, was jailed for 20 years

● Kevin Cavin, 27, of Thetford Gardens, Dagenham, was jailed for nine years and four months

● Daniel Clark, 39, of Marlborough Road, Dagenham, was sentenced to eight years imprisonment

● Saimir Neziri, 31, of Wythenshawe Road, in Dagenham, was jailed for 12 years

● Louis Wilkinson, 31, of Hedgemans Way, Dagenham, was sentenced to nine years imprisonment.

In sentencing the gang of 11, Judge Owen Davies said they had all been 'motivated by greed' and that their activities had a 'huge potential effect' on society.

The court heard that the men, who were dealing 'vast quantities of cocaine' supplied by an Albanian crime group, had been under investigation by police between October 2012 and March 2013.

Detectives from the Essex and Kent Serious

Crime Directorate 'picked off' various members of the group over several months during the inquiry to build a case against both criminal organisations.

Officers recovered 10kgs of cocaine and more than £575,000 in cash hidden in a 'safe house'. Senior investigating officer, Det Chief Insp Tracey Harman, welcomed the sentencing of the gang.

She said: "These sentences are a result of the hard work of a large number of officers and staff who were determined to bring these officers to justice and help dismantle an organised crime group."

"Drugs are a curse on society and cause harm to communities, turning people into addicts who commit crime to feed their habit. Drug dealers are strongly linked with violent crime in the county."

"We have successfully reduced the availability of Class A drugs, which could ultimately save lives."

Seven of the men pleaded guilty at the earliest opportunity while the other four were found guilty of conspiracy to supply cocaine and money laundering after a 13-week trial at the court last November.

Police will now apply to confiscate assets from the men under the Proceeds of Crime Act (POCA).

Competition

WIN! A cooking sensation kit with

IT is certainly true that a craftsman is only as good as his tools, and nowhere is this truer than in the kitchen.

Delimano is the very latest cookware sensation; a range of Italian-made, high quality, ceramic-coated non-stick cookware that combines style and practicality.

What's more, due to the range's patented non-stick technology, not only will your cooking be healthier as you'll use less oil, but it'll also taste rich and flavoured and your ingredients will retain all of their natural colours, aromas, juices and goodness.

Cooking with Delimano products is not only healthier, but also quicker. The ceramic coating allows for better heat conduction and distribution for even cooking, allowing you to cook on mostly low and medium temperatures.

Delimano products also have a thermo-sensor where the handle meets the pan, which turns red when the ideal cooking temperature has been reached.

We have two fantastic Delimano six-piece Cookware Sets to give away, each containing one small frying pan, one large frying pan, one cooking pot, a saucepan and two glass lids.

For your chance to win just answer the following question.

Q: What colour does Delimano's thermo-sensor turn to when the ideal cooking temperature has been reached?

Grow your own for food festival

GREEN-FINGERED residents in Waltham Forest are being urged to get organic this week.

Deputy council leader, Clyde Loakes, is calling on local people to take part in Cultivate – the council's first ever urban food growing festival from Friday, March 21 to Sunday, March 30.

Mr Loakes, who is cabinet member for environment, said: "We want to put food growing at the forefront of the minds of local residents whether they have a balcony, kitchen, yard or a formal allotment. We want to transform Waltham Forest into the centre of London food growing activities."

Cultivate, which is supported by local groups including OrganicLea, in Chingford, and the Artillery arts development organisation, launches with a one-day food conference at Leytonstone Library.

The festival will feature a wide range of activities including window box and tool making workshops, talks, film screenings, competitions, community planting and a cycle tour and walk.

Organisers also plan to set up a new Waltham Forest Food Co-operative, which will work to create community food growing plots and spaces and promote food growing for personal use and sale.

Ramneek's ready to take on the peaks

A MUM of two is gearing up to trek a gruelling 24 peaks in just 24 hours to raise money for charity.

Ramneek Sohal, from Redbridge, will be taking on the peaks of the Lake District including England's tallest mountain Scafell Pike, to help support the children's charity Plan UK in June.

She said: "I am not the fittest person in the world so this will be a tough challenge but I am hoping to raise as much money as possible. The work that Plan does is really close to my heart. I am one of five sisters, I have children, and my origins are in India, which is a country where Plan works."

Ramneek, who has two children aged four and six-years-old, will be specifically raising money for Plan UK's Girls Fund, which supports millions of the poorest girls around the world.

In 2005, Ramneek raised £7,300 for Plan UK when she climbed the Great Wall of China.

She added: "I was really inspired by the great work Plan does. The money I raised helped to build a school that had been damaged in the tsunami. I like that Plan's work is focused on long-term goals like educating girls and infrastructure projects to build a better future."

Ramneek, who works in human resources, is now hoping to raise more than £1,000 for Plan.

Our new enterprise hub is the business

A COLLEGE has launched a new enterprise hub to help students bridge the gap between college and the world of work.

Havering College of Further and Higher Education bosses said young people who want to set up their own business will be supported and mentored.

Hub co-ordinator Laura Trapp said: "The Government are putting a lot of weight behind the importance of employability skills and educating people about starting businesses because our economy is changing. "Old businesses that once employed lots of people are fading out and small to medium-sized enterprises are become more prevalent.

"We have set up the enterprise hub for two purposes - to develop our students' employability skills and encourage enterprise.

"The main aspect of what we are doing is to get our students ready for the workplace by developing their people skills, social skills and work skills such as communication and negotiation. The college is appealing for entrepreneurs to help out and share their knowledge with the students.

For further information on courses at Havering College call 01708 462801 or email information@havering-college.ac.uk

Businesses looking to support the talent of tomorrow get in touch with enterprise hub co-ordinator Laura Trapp by email at ltrapp@havering-college.ac.uk

Girl power gathering takes the biscuits

MORE than 50 female entrepreneurs dined on bread, biscuits and branding at an all-women gathering at Havering College.

Guest speaker at the Ardleigh Green Road venue was PR expert Sharon Gaisie who gave the ladies top tips on how to use low-cost public relations to get their business known. Sharon said: "I recently moved to the area so I'm keen to get to know other fellow businesswomen.

"The meeting exceeded my expectations. I wanted to make new contacts but I was pleasantly surprised by how friendly people were and how well received my talk was. I'll definitely be back."

One of the people listening was Karolina Witaszek of Romford-based Karolina's Kitchen. She brought her speciality organic bread, biscuits and nutty snacks.

Karolina said: "I came to women in business and to look for some guidance, suggestions and inspiration."

No time for uni for Hayley

HUNDREDS of people flocked to Havering College of Further Education to learn about how they can improve their job prospects with apprenticeships or courses in higher education.

Hayley O'Neill, 18, from Hornchurch, is hoping to secure an apprenticeship within the art and design industry. She is currently studying at the college on a BTEC level three art and design course.

Hayley said: "I don't want to go to university.

"I feel another three years of study is too long for me and the cost of university is too much.

"I like the idea of an apprenticeship because you learn as you go along from people with experience.

"I would go into any role within the art and design industry to get my foot in the door."

Romford teen in Sochi medal glory

A TEENAGER from Romford helped a visually impaired skier win a silver medal in the winter paralympics in Sochi.

Caroline Powell, 19, said the unfamiliarity of having to race last in search of a winter paralympic gold meant she and Jade Etherington had to settle for silver.

The teen guided visually impaired alpine skier Jade, 23, into the lead at the halfway stage of the women's individual slalom – a time of 1:00.87 minutes good enough for a 0.55 seconds advantage.

But a superb second run from Russia's Aleksandra Frantceva – the only skier to go under one minute in either slalom run in Rosa Khutor – saw her win by a margin of just 0.65 from Powell and Etherington.

With the running order reversed for the second run, the British pair were forced to ski last and Powell believes the deteriorating conditions may have been a factor in what was a tight margin of victory.

Caroline said: "We love slalom and we came out fighting. It's a different race and a different course so your expectations change, especially when you have two runs as well."

"Our first run we did really well, our second run we did well also, but Russia just did better. The first run and second run were very different. The first run we started right at the front and got the best piste we could.

"Visibility was really good as well for that but during the second run the visibility was not so good and it was a bumpier course because we're going down seventh and it had been raced on. We did well, but we didn't do well enough."

The pair won silver in the downhill and bronze in the super-G with Etherington.

Caroline added: "I'm loving it, the experience here has been amazing. I couldn't ask for anything better – except a gold."

ACHIEVEMENT: Jade Etherington and Caroline Powell

FREE film screenings are to be held in east London next month to honour Oscar-winner Dame Angela Lansbury.

The 88-year-old actress, currently starring in West End play Blithe Spirit, will return to her East End roots for the Angela Lansbury Film Festival in Poplar. Events will include free family screenings, projections of Murder, She Wrote episodes, a giant Bedknobs and Broomsticks-inspired pillow fight plus two personal appearances by the star.

Although born in north London, Dame Angela grew up in Poplar. Her grandfather, George Lansbury, was leader of the Labour Party from 1932-1935 and Bromley and Bow MP for 20 years.

Festival organiser Paul Augarde, of Poplar (Housing and Regeneration Community Association (HARCA)) said the idea came to him late last year.

By Charles Thomson

basildon@yellowad.co.uk

He said: "I was laying in the bath in October or November and I dreamt it up. Then a friend told me [Angela] was coming home to London to do Blithe Spirit. We thought it was perfect; if she's coming home, why not bring her all the way home to the East End?"

Dame Angela has curated the festival, which will screen films on Saturday, April 5, and Sunday, April 6, at the Crisp Street Market and nearby youth centre Spotlight, on Hay Currie Street. Films include her Oscar-nominated turns in Gaslight, The Manchurian Candidate and The Picture of Dorian Gray, as well as free screenings of Nanny McPhee and Bedknobs and Broomsticks. Mr Augarde said: "We had written down our wish-list and then Dame Angela sent hers and they matched absolutely. Some films chose themselves, like Bedknobs and Broomsticks, which has what I consider to be one of the best dance scenes in any film – the one in Portobello Road Market, where all the different cultural groups dance and it's all broken up by Bruce Forsyth."

Dame Angela will personally introduce a free screening of the film on Sunday, April 6. She will give an on-stage interview later that afternoon.

Mr Augarde said: "If you've seen the pictures of her leaving the theatre every night in the West End, it's a mobbing. It's extraordinary. She is universally known. We are incredibly lucky that she is coming."

Some events are free, while others range from £7-£25.

Free events are ticketed, allocated on a first come, first served basis. For more information, visit www.poplarfilmpresents.com

Could you make a difference and become a foster carer?

By Shelina Hargrove

The number of children coming into care has been increasing every year, but there are not enough foster carers able to give them a safe home. A child comes into care and needs a foster home every 22 minutes in the UK, so more foster families are needed urgently to provide a warm and loving environment to vulnerable children in the community.

Some children need a safe place to stay for only a few nights, whilst others might stay in long-term foster care until they are grown up. It is important that children who require care have foster carers who can meet their needs, so foster children are matched very closely with carers to help ensure that the placement will be successful.

Could you make a difference and become a foster carer?

- You may be married, live as a couple, be single or divorced
- You may be gay or heterosexual
- You may be from any ethnic background, culture or religion
- You may be employed, unemployed or early retired
- You may be a home owner or a tenant
- You do not need any formal qualifications to become a foster carer

What you will need is a spare bedroom for the exclusive use of the foster child, patience and flexibility, and the time and energy to invest in a child or young person.

Caroline's story:

My name is Caroline. I am 49 years of age and a single parent to two daughters, aged 22 and 12. I have been a foster carer for eleven years and have been with my current agency for five years now. I became a foster carer because I wanted to make a difference and support vulnerable children; I felt as a parent I was naturally equipped with motherhood, so caring for less privileged children came as second nature.

'For me, the best part was knowing that I could make a positive impact in the children's lives and help them change things for the better'

My first foster child stayed with me for only a short time, but the trust and love that developed between us remains today. She still visits regularly as a part of our family, now with a child of her own! I then became a long-term foster carer to three brothers, Christopher (11), David (10) and Billy (7). All of the boys are now grown up and living independent lives.

I cannot say it was always easy – there were many difficult times – but perseverance, persistence and patience became rewarding. For me, the best part was knowing that I could make a positive impact in the children's lives and help them change things for the better. Seeing the children grow into independent and intelligent individuals has brought me satisfaction and helped me to become a better person.

All of this would not have been possible had it not been for the support network around me – my family and friends, and my supervising social worker, Cathy. Her wealth of knowledge and professionalism has helped me enormously. I recently completed 5 years of service with the National Fostering Agency and was presented with an award at a ceremony in London! I would like to thank my agency for their support, and express my gratitude to all those carers who take the time to make a difference.

Ben's story:

I was brought up in care and I moved away from my family when I was 10 years old. I didn't have a great time to start off with; I moved a lot and also changed schools, which was pretty rubbish at the time. When I was 13, I moved in with some foster carers that I really liked! They listened to what I had to say and really cared about me. I was at a new school with loads of new friends, and I really wanted to stay.

After a few years at school I got my GCSEs and they were really important to me, as I wanted to get into college and study for my A-Levels. I now have my A-Levels under my belt and I'm looking to go to university soon.

I really like to exercise and I'm always out and about – running, swimming and going to the gym. When I'm not exercising or working you will find me in the living room playing FIFA with my foster brother...and he always wins!

Could you offer a child a safe place?

The most important ingredient in fostering is YOU

You can apply to be a foster carer regardless of your marital or residential status. What you will need is a spare room and the time and energy to invest in a child or young person.

NFA is looking for foster carers in your local area.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 - (i) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 - (ii) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

O'S STUNG BY TEN-MAN BEES

Orient

Leyton Orient 0 Brentford 1
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons
at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient's automatic promotion hopes suffered a major, psychological blow last Saturday, after Marcelo Trotta's first-half strike for the ten-man Bees propelled the west Londoners into second-spot behind runaway leaders, Wolves.

James Tarkowski was red-carded for a second bookable offence in a often ill-tempered match.

Indeed, Bees' striker, Clayton Donaldson was lucky to escape with only a booking after appearing to raise a hand, leaving Orient boss Russell Slade complaining: 'Donaldson has gone in as if it's a bar brawl. You can't put your hand in someone's face'.

Slade, made one change from the midweek 2-0 win at Port Vale, with Kevin Lisbie replacing Chris Dagnall. The switch almost paid off when the striker found top scorer, David Mooney, but he chipped over the advancing David Button.

Before their biggest home league crowd for over 20 years, Orient then enjoyed territorial advantage, and aided by refereeing decisions that continually infuriated the large travelling support, the home side should have made their possession count and Dean Cox, Romain Vincelot and Mooney - again - went close, but was denied on the line by Button.

For all their domination, the O's were caught by a sucker punch in first-half stoppage time when Trotta was given a clear sight of goal following a Vincelot slip and a couple of fortunate midfield ricochets.

The man whose penalty miss cost the west Londoners promotion last season drove emphatically past a helpless Jakupovic.

Trotta could have doubled the Bees' lead straight after the break, after Clayton Donaldson had been given too much time and space to cross, but Scott Cuthbert, spared the O's blushes.

Seconds later, the Bees were reduced to ten men when Tarkowski received a second yellow card for a cynical foul on Vincelot.

But, Brentford's numerical inferiority only served to galvanize them and apart from Button's superb block from a close-range Moses Odubajo effort, the O's never got a look in.

Indeed, the side now in an automatic promotion spot took advantage of an increasingly ragged-looking Orient defence and in stoppage time the on-loan schemer's effort struck the base of Jakupovic's near post.

A disappointed Slade admitted: 'It's a big blow. How we've not scored today, I'll never know.

'But, the effort and determination was of a high standard - and that culminated in what was a very strong first-half. We did everything we could, but we seemed to back off for their goal and it just opened up nicely on his left foot.'

Lisbie added: 'I thought we started the game really well, but I think that when we're on top, we've got to score

- and unfortunately they got that goal. With the luck that has been with us in front of goal this season, the ball just didn't seem to fall for us.'

Cuthbert admitted: 'It's massively disappointing. There was a lot of hype before the game, a sell-out crowd, top of the league clash against our London rivals - and we've come up a bit short. But, we've got to look at the positives and must not get too down as there are still 27 points to play for.'

■ Orient travel to Walsall this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

LEYTON ORIENT: Eldin Jakupovic - Elliot Omozusi, Scott Cuthbert, Nathan Clarke (captain), Gary Sawyer (Shaun Batt 70) - Moses Odubajo, Romain Vincelot, Lloyd James (Marvin Bartley 89), Dean Cox - Kevin Lisbie (Chris Dagnall 75), David Mooney. Subs (not used): Robbie Simpson, Jake Larkins (gk), Yohann Lasimant, Jamie Ness.

BRENTFORD: David Button - Alan McCormack James Tarkowski (sent-off 50), Tony Craig, Jake Bidwell - Adam Forshaw, Jonathan Douglas, Alan Judge - Clayton Donaldson, Marcelo Trotta (Harlee Dean 51). Subs (not used): Richard Lee (gk), Will Grigg, Stuart Dallas, Jake Reeves, Nico Yennaris, Charlie Adams.

Football

Rovers on the march

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves
IT was a case of 'as you were' in the Essex Senior League, as leading pair Great Wakering Rovers and Tower Hamlets enjoyed home triumphs.

Goals from Lewis Sparrow, Dave Collins, Dan Trenkel and Billy Johnson eased Rovers to a 4-1 success over London APSA while Kane Wilson, Luke With and Isaac found the net for Tower Hamlets in an entertaining 3-1 win over a useful Basildon United outfit.

Enfield 1893 kept up the pressure with a 2-1 win at Stansted and Bowers & Pitsea grabbed a single goal victory at the Old Spotted Dog against Clapton.

Sawbridgeworth squeezed in 2-1 over Barking, but there was nothing to separate the teams in the other matches. Ilford and Sporting Bengal United played out an epic 2-2 draw at Cricklefield Stadium and it was 1-1 between Greenhouse London and Takeley.

Hullbridge v Eton Manor and Southend Manor v Haringey Borough both finished up goalless.

It was a tough day for our Skril clubs with both Chelmsford City and Concord Rangers tasting defeat. An own goal from Watts along with a Michael Cheek strike wasn't enough to save the Claret from a 4-2 defeat at Eastbourne Borough, while a first half goal from former Colchester man Freddie Ladapo was enough for Hayes & Yeading United to see off Concord Rangers.

And it was little better for the regions Ryman Premier League teams. East Thurrock United were hammered 5-0 at Wealdstone, former Leyton Orient striker Scott McGleish with a hat trick for the Stones.

Grays Athletic crashed 4-1 at home against Carshalton Athletic and Billericay Town tumbled to a 2-0 defeat at New Lodge against Margate.

Canvey Island continued their recent progress, a Jay Curran goal earning the Gulls a 1-1 draw with Metropolitan Police, and it was a point on the road for AFC Hornchurch. George Purcell scoring an early penalty in another game that finished 1-1.

Plenty of goals in the Ryman North. Brentwood Town led the way putting four without reply past Waltham Forest and Heybridge Swifts weren't far behind, winning 3-0 against VCD Athletic and Romford recorded the same margin of victory over Wroxham.

Redbridge picked up maximum points from their trip to Dereham Town, Danny Francis grabbing the important strikes in a 2-0 win, while Witham Town sneaked home by the odd goal in five against Erith & Belvedere.

Steven Carvell found the net for Barkingside after only two minutes, but 'Side' had to settle for a share of the spoils when visitors Needham Market restored parity.

There were draws for Harlow Town, 1-1 versus AFC Sudbury and it was the same outcome as Aveley travelled to Cheshunt, Ware and Tilbury finished goalless.

It wasn't such good news for Burnham Ramblers who went down 2-0 at Chatham Town.

Woodford promotion hopes go to last game

Rugby

Essex U15s League Division 2
Chelmsford 17 Woodford 41

THIS was a must-win game for Woodford to stand any chance of staying in the promotion mix as the season reaches its climax. Despite a number of injury enforced absences, it was a strong Woodford squad that turned out in the sunshine on Sunday.

Chelmsford made the first attacking move after Woodford made a hash of the kick off. From the scrum Chelmsford attacked but Dan Farrelly was on hand with the first of many tackles he made in a solid centre partnership.

With just three minutes gone, Woodford's passing came together, with Farrelly, Will Curness and Sohoye combining, the latter spotting a gap and breaking from the 22 yard line for a try between the posts.

Despite the sun's rays and the azure sky, the wind was whipping up making it a tricky day for the kickers, and the conversion missed its mark.

Chelmsford were using their back line well and putting pressure on Woodford with sweeping attacks.

With action centred in the Chelmsford 22, the home team looked to break from a line out, but the canny Sohoye nipped in to intercept a short pass, weaving through for another try between the posts. With Marks' conversion, Woodford led 12-0.

Chelmsford heads remained high and they made a strong attack and West had to be at his best for a fine rescuing tackle.

The next passage of play was all

Woodford - West, Ali, Sohoye and Venditti were all involved, with the final pass reaching Marks for a well-crafted team try to the right of the posts. Marks' kick was good but the wind bent it just shy of the posts. Woodford led 17-0.

No sooner had Taylor Wilkins come on for Goralczyk, when another line out won by Fay saw Mead's quick pass set Marks free for a try. Unconverted, Woodford led 22-0.

Chelmsford turned round to play the second half with both the wind and slight slope advantage. Had Woodford done enough in the first half and could they cope with what was to come?

Chelmsford pressurised the Woodford line and with a succession of penalty decisions going against Woodford, Chelmsford were suddenly back into it with a try in the left hand corner. The conversion agonisingly hit the upright. Woodford led 22-5.

Woodford's best move of the half came from West bursting from a scrum and passing to Curness and on to Vaid. With good support from Fay and Chamberlain, the ball went to the backs who began to make ground courtesy of Mead, Marks and Sohoye.

With 37 minutes gone, play was just 5 yards short of Chelmsford's try line. The forwards launched several attempts to score moving play in to the middle of the pitch. Fay and Chamberlain worked hard, holding the ball up before offloading to Mead and on to Marks for a try.

With Chelmsford using the line well again, Bastick made two well-timed tackles on the wing, with Marks, Sohoye, Farrelly, Chamberlain and West adding to a high and very effective tackle count.

Woodford put pressure on themselves with some risky passing near their own try line. Just as the danger looked to have passed, Chelmsford found a gap and scored, converting to reduce the deficit to 27-12.

A bursting run by Curness saw Mead, West and Fitzpatrick link up well to keep the pressure on Chelmsford. As the ball came out Farrelly's pass reached Goralczyk, who held off his opponent well and drove towards the posts. Venditti, Levy and Curness combined in support and were held up just short of the line. Goralczyk and Fay helped to force the ball further on, before West made a lunging dive over for a fine try. Marks' conversion gave Woodford a 34-12 lead.

Woodford re-jigged their back line bringing Batt in to the outside centre position. Having been starved of ball most of the game he soon showed his credentials with a searing break from the Woodford 22.

Expectations rose as Woodford attacked up the left but the Chelmsford defence did enough to clear their line.

There was no respite as Mead, Marks and Sohoye combined once more deep in the Woodford half. Sohoye and Fitzpatrick exchanged passes, and offloaded to Farrelly who made an imperious run down the middle from 30 yards out for a majestic try between the posts. Marks' conversion increased the Woodford lead to 41-12.

Bastick caught from the restart and West was swift to back him up. Woodford cleared the pressure but with the ball still in play they took their eye off the game and Chelmsford burst through some uncharacteristic weak tackling for a try.

An excellent team victory for Woodford who will need to win their final league game against Eton Manor at the end of April, and hope that other results go the right way, to pull off a second successive promotion.
